

Webb Anderson Agility Seminar

Presented by Capitol Dog Training Club of Austin
February 27th and 28th, 2010

Webb Anderson, canine agility trainer, coach, and competitor, is one of the best known personalities in the dog agility community. He and his canine partner, Nigel, have received many distinguished awards. Nigel ranks in AKC's top 20 All Breed Agility dogs and is currently the top agility Miniature Schnauzer in Lifetime Points. Webb currently has training facilities in Alabama and Georgia and offers the most comprehensive agility training program in the Southeast.

Agility is a team sport that requires a variety of skills from both the dog and the handler. Webb has developed the PATH system to ensure that all of the components in agility are covered.
